

National Headquarters Overnight Lodging Request Form

Members of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., and their guests may request to stay at National Headquarters. The request will be submitted to the National Service Officer and must be made at least 30 days in advance. The National Executive Board reserves the right to approve or deny all requests to stay at National Headquarters. A member of the National Executive Board or a past National Officer must be in attendance during any stay. A donation of $25.00 per person per night is suggested to cover the expenses of maintaining headquarters. The member is responsible for any guests staying or visiting at the National Headquarters.
